Meeting al-Khidr

During the long journey to the Promised Land, Prophet Musa ﷺ too learned many lessons. One of these was from al-Khidr ("the green one"). Probably an angel in the form of a man, al-Khidr had special knowledge and the power to make great changes in the affairs of the world.

Musa ﷺ set out with his young disciple, Yusha bin Nun. At a certain point the fish they were carrying to eat revived and slipped away into the sea. As predicted, this is where they found al-Khidr. "May I follow you, and be guided by your knowledge?" Musa ﷺ asked al-Khidr. "Impossible!" said al-Khidr, "For how can you tolerate what is beyond your knowledge?"

Musa ﷺ replied: "If Allah will, you shall find me patient: I shall in no way cross you." Al-Khidr agreed but warned Musa ﷺ not to question him about anything until he mentioned it himself.

The two then embarked upon a ship, whereupon al-Khidr bored a hole in it. Musa ﷺ exclaimed: "Do you want to drown the passengers?"

"Didn't I tell you," replied al-Khidr, "that you would not bear with me?"

"Forgive me," said Musa ﷺ. "Please don't be angry." They journeyed on until they met a young boy, whom al-Khidr promptly killed. Musa ﷺ exclaimed: "What wickedness—killing an innocent soul!"

"Didn't I tell you," al-Khidr replied, "that you would not bear with me?" Musa ﷺ said: "If ever I question you again, abandon me; for then I should deserve it."

Then they came to a city and asked for food, but were refused. Seeing a wall that was crumbling, al-Khidr repaired it, but Musa ﷺ objected to his doing so without payment.

"Now we must part," said al-Khidr. "But first I will explain my actions which seemed so dreadful to you. I damaged the ship because it belonged to some poor fishermen and nearby there was a king who plundered every vessel. As for the youth, he would only have distressed his believing parents with his wickedness and unbelief. We prayed that their Lord would replace him with a more righteous and filial son. The wall belonged to two orphans, sons of an honest man in the city. Beneath it their treasure lay buried. Your Lord decreed that they should dig it up when they grew to manhood. What I did was not by my will. That explains what you could not bear to watch with patience." (18:60-82)

All this shows that the highest Divine wisdom sometimes appears to bring calamity. Man's limited knowledge and lack of foresight cause him to grieve over seeming tragedies. But the true believer never flinches at such times, for he knows that the loving hand of Allah unceasingly directs humanity toward the goal of the greatest good. This is the lesson of the story of al-Khidr.

Al-Khidr and the sparrow

While al-Khidr and Musa ﷺ were in the boat, a sparrow perched on its side and dipped its beak once or twice into the water. Al-Bukhari reported al-Khidr's words: "Musa, what I know and what you know has not lessened what Allah knows any more than the waters have been decreased by what the sparrow has drunk."

During the famous meeting between al-Khidr and Musa ﷺ, Allah made it clear that there are different kinds of knowledge—wisdom and understanding—and that He gives them to whomever He wishes, whenever He wishes.

Man's limited knowledge and his inability to see into the future cause him to feel great concern over what he thinks are tragedies. The true believer would never lose heart at such losses, for he would know that the beneficent hand of Allah, that works in nature, unceasingly directs humanity toward the goal of the greatest good.
